“ We will always remember blockbuster movie nights at our dads house when we were younger, going to Aunt Bernadette & Uncle Chips to go in their community pool with Matt and Rachel, going to Grandma Mary and Grandpa Joes almost every visit and eating that delicious pasta Grandma Mary makes. We will miss our dad. When he passed it left an emptiness inside me that can not be filled. His memory will live on forever!

“ Joe, the times I shared with you were always full of fun and laughter and you believed in living life to the fullest!

I hope I get to see your Beautiful Daughters, son-in-law and Grandson in the near future; hear they are amazing! You have a legacy Joe, and you will forever remain in hearts of many!!! Now your joyous soul is shared in heaven in the spiritual realm in the mighty presence of our glorious maker our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!!! Halaluehia Joe!

To your Loving Family and Friends:

I love you soooo much!

" May Almighty God comfort and give you peace!

May His Anointing Spirit rain with love upon you! and in HIS time fill you hearts with Joy once again! I pray these things in Jesus name AMEN!"

“ My dear friend Joey, you will be missed. I will always cherish the talks we had about break ups and advice about life with each other. I will always cherish the times we stayed up watching tv in your little apartment, watching the Honeymooners and Star Trek. You and your family are so important to me. Ma and Pops, Bernadette, Chip, Rachel, Matt, words cannot express the pain you are all feeling. He is gone way too soon. I can assure you of this, Jesus is watching over him, and we will all be together in His Kingdom at His timing. I love you all, my family. 💜💜💜

Love, Donna

“ To the entire Quinto family, I would like to express my deepest condolences. This is simply heart breaking. I pray for your comfort and peace from God. Take comfort that we all will see Joe again at a time that is determined by our heavenly Father. Rest assured though, you will see him again.

Joe and I shared so much together from such an early age. He was truly my best friend and we shared so much of the same humor and values. We saw each other grow from little boys into Men, husbands and Fathers. Unfortunately life and geography brought us in separate directions but we never lost the connection that bonded us. It was a bond that was invisible but always present. When we spoke via text or on the phone the jokes only we understood were sure to come into the conversation and evoke the same laughter today as 30 years ago. We never missed a beat in those moments.

God blessed me with a great and true friend. He wasn't just the best man at my wedding, he truly was the best man. We hadn't seen each other in quite some time. Despite that fact, knowing I could pick up the phone and reach him was comfort for me. I know he felt the same based on our conversations. I miss him immensely. I can't shake the urge to call him now and tell him what's going on. I want to tell him how much he is loved. So I will say to him , Joe, I love you. My life is so much better having had you as part of it.

May you rest in peace my friend. God bless you. Until we meet again.
