

Joseph Storms III

April 27, 1961 - January 4, 2025

Joseph Storms III, 63, of Satsuma, Florida, passed away unexpectedly at his home on January 4, 2025. He was born on April 27, 1961, in Port Jervis, New York, to Elsie Merker of Albany, New York, and Joseph Storms Jr. of Port Jervis, New York.

Joseph enjoyed camping, fishing, and sitting around with a cup of coffee talking to anyone who would indulge him. He loved Rock music and cooking. He was thrilled to video chat with his daughter and grandchildren in Indiana and carry on long conversations with his grandchildren in Florida.

Joseph was preceded in death by his parents, both sets of grandparents, and several beloved aunts and uncles.

He is survived by his brothers Larry Storms of New Castle, Indiana, Howard Storms of Connersville, Indiana, as well as Kris Vandemark of Newburgh, New York. Joseph's greatest joy was his family, and he is lovingly remembered by his two daughters, Nickcole Johnson of Satsuma, Florida, and April Fisher of Carthage, Indiana. His six grandchildren—Jadyn Beverly, Abigail Johnson, Caleb Storms, Aryanna Hellard, Greysin Fisher, and Daxtin Fisher—were the light of his life. He also leaves behind a host of nieces and nephews: Josh Storms, Justin Storms, Kayleigh Davis, Brittney Shaw, and Howard Storms Jr.; as well as several grand nieces and nephews who will forever cherish their memories of him.

Joseph will be remembered for his kind heart, love for animals, and the joy he brought to those around him. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

A celebration of life service will be announced at a later date, during which we will livestream the scattering of his ashes where friends and family can watch from afar to honor his memory.
