“ I’m not sure how to share “a” memory because I truly have a lifetime of them. She was there for me my whole life, through a lot of good and bad, unconditionally loving. I guess that’s the memory I will share, as well as keep with me forever... the feeling of her unconditional love. I can still remember how it felt as a child to sit with her and rest my head on her chest. It was the warmest safest feeling in the world. Even as I grew, even when I wasn’t with her, just thinking of her or talking to her always gave me that same feeling. She was my comfort, my soft place to fall. And I know that now that she’s in heaven, her love was strong enough that I will still feel her. She will still be with me always. I miss you grandma. I’m so grateful and blessed to have had you in my life. I love you more than words can say.
