Joshua (Josh) Christian Short, age 44, of St. Augustine went to be with his older brother, Jason on December 10, 2017, who predeceased him. They will probably reform their teenage band "Purple Ice Cream". Jason on vocals and Josh on guitar. They used to play for neighborhood birthday parties for all the ice cream and cake they could eat. Josh was born in Alexandria, Va on June 17, 1973, Fathers Day. Same ward as his brother, maybe same crib. Josh graduated from Falls Church High School in 1991, where he received the Award of Merit, Outstanding Young Artist chosen to participate in the Virginia State Youth Art Exhibit. It was signed by then Governor Wilder. In 1994 Josh came to live with his father, Albert Palmer Short. He enrolled in the culinary school and later cooked for many restaurants in St. Augustine. His favorite was Fiddler's Green. Later he worked for Flagler Hospital where he made many friends of fellow employees and patients, receiving many commendations. He also worked for United Parcel. During the nineties he was in the band "All Gone Wrong", the band played all around town. He loved surfing at Vilano or anywhere there was a wave. Josh loved life and squeezed every minute he could out of it. He was loved by many for his humorous outlook on life. He was predeceased by his mother, Claudia Short; his older brother, Jason. He is survived by his father, Albert Palmer Short of St. Augustine; aunt (surrogate grandmother), Mary Louise Smith and uncle, Col.
