Joy Delight LaSavage

July 29, 1947 - December 28, 2010

Joy Delight Lasavage, age 63, of St. Augustine, passed away on Tuesday, Dec. 28, at Flagler Hospital surrounded by her family. Born in Bethlehem, Pa., she grew up in the Pocono Mountains and was a longtime resident of Smyrna, Delaware before moving to St. Augustine in 2002. Joy was a 1969 graduate of West Redding (Pennsylvania) School of Nursing. She worked as a Registered Nurse at the Delaware Home & Hospital for the Chronically Ill for 17 ½ years. After retiring from Nursing she enjoyed a second career in Real Estate in Delaware for many years. More than anything, Joy was a loving wife, mother and homemaker. She was deeply spiritual and faithfully read her bible daily. She enjoyed the outdoors, gardening, and her two cats. She was a member of Anastasia Baptist Church where she was involved in Ladies Bible Study, and the Salt & Light Sunday School Class. She is survived by her husband, Peter Lasavage of St. Augustine, a daughter, Robin King of Cheyenne, Wyoming, a son Tyler Lasavage of St. Augustine, and sisters, Nancy Frailey of Columbus, Ohio, Delores Masleh of Ephrata, Pa., and Betty Ferruzza of Lancaster, Pa. Services will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 1, at Anastasia Baptist Church with Rev. Walter West officiating. A visitation will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 31, 2010 at St. Johns Family Funeral Home. A committal service and interment will be held at 2:30 p.m. on Monday, Jan. 3, 2010 at Jacksonville National Cemetery. Flowers are gratefully accepted or donations in Joy's memory can be made to Anastasia Baptist Church Building Fund,
