

Joy L. Melanson

May 28, 1927 - June 5, 2024

Joy L. Melanson, born on May 28, 1927, in Toledo, Ohio, passed away peacefully in her sleep on June 5, 2024, joining her beloved husband George Melanson, daughter Sandy, sister Bea, and her mother and father in eternal rest. Known for the joy she brought to everyone she met, Joy lived a long and happy life, embodying the essence of her name.

Joy's warmth and kindness were felt by all who had the pleasure of knowing her. She leaves behind a legacy of love and compassion, survived by her grandsons Robert Boyles, Daniel Wieland, and John St. Germain, her niece Lynn Pell, as well as her cousins and extended family. Her impact extended far beyond blood relations, touching the lives of countless others with her generous spirit and unwavering kindness.

Joy was an extraordinary person whose presence enriched the lives of many. Her family and friends will forever hold her in their hearts, cherishing the memories of a life well-lived.

In her honor, let us all remember to find joy every day, treat everyone with kindness and love, and be grateful for every moment we share with our loved ones. Time is precious, and Joy's life reminds us to treasure it dearly. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

A celebration of life will take place at the San Solito clubhouse off Woodlawn Road in St. Augustine on Sunday, June 23, 2024, from 1:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Any questions can be directed to Daniel Wieland at 407-408-0586

In lieu of flowers, those desiring may make memorial contributions to St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, <https://www.stjude.org/give>, or the ASPCA <https://www.aspca.org>.

St. Johns Family Funeral Home of St. Augustine is assisting the family with arrangements.
