

Judith "Judie" Dale Winter

April 16, 1941 - April 23, 2022

Judie Dale Winter (Watson) passed away on April 23, 2022, in Saint Augustine, Florida.

Judie was born in Jacksonville, Florida to Walker "Skeet" Watson and Doris Watson (Tradnack).

A few years after her birth, the family relocated to South Carolina settling in the St. Andrews area of Charleston. Her years in Charleston were spent raising her family. Judie never met a stranger and enjoyed making people laugh with her sharp wit. She loved dancing, the latest fashions, and her beloved dogs Killer and Henry. She was also an avid reader frequently visiting the Charleston Library searching her favorite section, biographies. Judie also created her own little library concerning anything to do with Charleston. Cars were also one of her loves, mainly sports cars. She enjoyed touring around town in her Mazda Miata convertible. Revving the engine with a big smile was her way to say goodbye after a visit.

Judie is survived by her son Ralph H. Kluge III (Hank), his wife Tracy, and daughter Mackenzie, her sister Carole Burbage, nephew Artie Burbage, and niece Allison Burbage.

No services are planned at this time.

St Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
