“ Been a year since my angle went home to our Lord. You're missed now just as much as the day you were called home. My thoughts and memories are just as strong and painful as day one. You are my love and soulmate. That will never change. I thank you for your love and the great memories we made together. Until we meet again my love, I can only console myself and others with the belief that you're in a better and painfree place. We all lost a loving and caring person on 6/15/23. I love you.

“ My beautiful friend for life ❤️. Judy has always been in my heart and soul. And there she will remain forever. I moved away from you many decades ago, but we will always share love and the amazing adventures we had together as youngins’. You were 19 and I 18 when we first met at work. I can recall our times together like it was yesterday.

We lived together as roommates in those early days too in my beautiful Big Mama’s apartment behind her house in Jax. (My precious grandmother).

You loved Big Mama too, and always mentioned her when we spoke over these many decades. We kept in touch over the years. You came to my wedding 35 years ago, and I was so happy when you and Mike came to visit us in the mountains about 7 years ago. Fly Away to Heaven my beautiful friend ❤️🙏❤️
