

Judy Kristine Dykes Vickers

May 15, 1950 - October 1, 2023

Judith Kristine Dykes Vickers, born on May 15, 1950 in Jacksonville, Florida passed away on October 1, 2023 after a brief battle with a terminal illness. Surrounded by loved ones, she took her last breath, knowing that she was cherished for her kind and gentle soul.

Judy is survived by her beloved son, Kenneth Wayne Vickers, as well as a host of family members and friends. Her memory will forever be etched in the hearts of those she touched, leaving an enduring legacy of warmth and compassion. Judy's presence left an indelible mark on all who had the privilege of knowing her. She had a big heart and beautiful smile. She was a private and quiet person but could also be very witty and funny. She was sensitive and incredibly compassionate. She cared so deeply for the people around her and was always up for a good conversation.

Judy's journey began in Jacksonville, where she spent her formative years. Later, she relocated to Callahan, Florida, to raise her family and remain close to her beloved parents and siblings. In a more recent chapter of her life, she found happiness in the company of William Meares and decided to move to Palm Coast to be with him. Though their time together was brief, it brought immense joy and fulfillment to Judy, and she departed this world as a content and fulfilled soul.

Judy Vickers' legacy of love, kindness, and grace will continue to inspire all who knew her. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
