“Wow. Just saw this and deeply sorry for your loss. She use to come to Franklin Correctional Institution and teach Celebrate Recovery to the men in there. She was a mom to most including myself. Her heart was so pure, she saw past the offenses we committed and saw the men we wanted to be and needed to be beyond those walls. God called back an angel and though that hurts I'm truly grateful for the time I shared with her and the words of life she spoke over me helping me be the man I am today. Rest easy Mama Julie. See you when I get home.

“Dear Stephens family; it was my honor and privilege to cross Pastor Julie's life pathway. She will live within my Carrabelle memories as an outstanding woman, a truly shining example of leadership and faith. The health struggles she suffered as her life came to an ending were tragic and yet she asked for and continued to believe in the power of prayer. Heaven was a better place on February 13th when Julie arrived!!! much love and care and heartfelt sympathy to you children, her extended family but most of all to Mr Joe. Your years together in marriage and in family life gave memories you will always cherish. The latter years in sickness and suffering can never be forgotten either, Joe but her eternal rest in peace was so hard earned and so well deserved. My heart aches for your lonely days and nights ahead but may close family be near you in life and memories. Mel Kelly
