“ So sad to hear that Coach Diaz has passed away. He was my drivers ed teacher sixteen years ago & i have the fondest memories of him. He was so funny, kind & laid back - he would take my friends & i out driving & tell us we could go to the mcdonalds drive thru if we bought his breakfast. He was the best. RIP

“ Hey Brother just can't stop thinking about you and that your gone. I know it hasn't been the best last 2 years for us and our health but I am glad you were there for me and cared about me and understood what chronic pain is and I can only say this about you not here being here anymore and that your not in pain now but I do know that others are now. I just wish I could have been able to help you but didn't hear anything buddy. so I believe you went peacefully.&128519; I will meet up with you on the courts in heaven...maybe you can drive up the left side now to the basket.
