“ I was Justin’s fifth grade teacher at Osceola Elementary. I remember him as being such a kind, respectful, considerate young man; well liked by all of his classmates and the school staff. He had such a charming smile and personality! I remember he was chosen to mentor a kindergarten student who was having behavioral challenges; the only fifth grader asked to help out. Justin would check in with the student daily, encourage him in his work and behavior, and reward him with a few minutes of together time. He made such an impact on that five year old’s life! My heart goes out to the family. Such a heartbreaking loss of such a fine young man. I know he will be missed.
