“ My heart aches for the family to lose Paul, so young. Words are so limited that can give comfort. I would like to share with you a beautiful scripture where Jesus makes us a wonderful promise at John 5:28, which says: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Also our heavenly father promises us to do away with man's worst enemy, death at Rev. 21: 3,4 which reads: "With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say, "Look! "The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them." "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." Psalm 34: 18 tells us: "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit." May these promises give you hope, comfort and peace in your time of grief.

“ Hugs from Heaven When you feel a gentle breeze caress you when you sigh it's a hug from heaven from a loved one way up high. If a soft and tender raindrop lands upon your nose they've added a small kiss as fragile as a rose. If a song you hear fills you with sweet love it's a hug sent from heaven from someone special up above. If you awaken in the morning to the bluebirds chirping song it's music sent from heaven to cheer you all day long. If tiny little snowflakes land upon your face it's a hug sent from heaven trimmed with Angel lace. So keep the joy in your heart if you're lonely my dear friend hugs that are sent from heaven a broken heart will mend.
