

Kathryn Gribble Cheshire Pappy

August 24, 1957 - June 4, 2020

Kathryn Gribble Cheshire Pappy physically left this Earth to be in heaven on June 4, 2020. Kathie had a personality and smile that could light up the entire room. Kathie is best known for being Super-Grandma to all of her grandchildren, great nieces and nephew, and the neighborhood children. Kathie had a love for coffee, animals, dancing, and spending time with her family and friends. Kathie was preceded in death by her father, Burton Gribble; mother, Mary Jane Gunya; brother Carl Gribble and loving husband Johnnie Pappy. Kathie is survived by her son, Chris Cheshire, daughter-in-love, Sarah Cheshire, grandchildren, Chase Heuer, Cale Cheshire, Logan Collins, and Emma Mae Cheshire; her sisters, Julie Arnold, Shelly Gribble, and Sherry Stratton and brother, Dale Gribble; brother in law, Allen Cheshire and Sister-in-law, Patty Cheshire. She has many nieces, nephews, and great nieces and nephews. Kathie was a friend to everyone she met. She gave the best, most non-judgmental advice, and always looked at everything in a positive light. She will be greatly missed by everyone. Rest easy in Heaven, Kathie. We love you very much. “ Bye Kathie, my sister in soul. A friend from the age of 8, we sure had some great times back then. Playing in your dads car, up in the room in my attic listening to music. Life was so simple then, and our friendship was special.

I'm sorry we hadn't gotten to see each other in many many years, but I always thought of you and hoped you were living the good life. I will see you again soon. Save me some coffee sis.
