

Kay Lindstrom

March 12, 1953 - February 1, 2025

Kay Lindstrom, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away at the age of 71 on February 1, 2025 leaving behind a legacy of love, compassion, and spunky personality that will be cherished forever.

Born Rosemary Kay Harper on March 12, 1953, in Seneca, South Carolina to the late Wilson and Agatha Harper, Kay grew up alongside her siblings Norman, Anna, and Patti. Throughout her life, she displayed a zest for living, a passion for helping others, and a deep love for animals. Her parents, sister Anna, and many fur babies who she rescued over the years have gone before her, but their memories will always be held close to her heart.

Kay's dedication to making a difference extended beyond her family. With a career at Tree of Life a natural and organic food distribution company, she made a lasting impact in the community of St. Augustine, Florida. Her work was not just a job but a platform to support those in need, including her involvement in several community self help programs.

Those who knew Kay can attest to her vibrant personality; she truly was the life of the party. She was loved by many, from her husband Clas Lindstrom, daughter Shannon Wilson (John), grandchild Shanique Wilson, brother Norman Harper (Judy), sister Patti Kessell, nephew Brad Harper (Ashley), niece Leah Lewis (Nick), nephew Lee Kessell, niece Kayln Shipalowski (Jay), several great nephews and nieces, and life long friends.

In memory of Kay, her family requests that donations be made to the St. Augustine Humane Society <https://www.staughumane.org> , a cause near and dear to her heart. Kay's legacy is one of compassion, generosity, and laughter. She will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Though she may no longer walk beside us, her spirit lives on in the hearts of those she loved and those who loved her. Rest in peace, dear Kay. Your memory will forever be a blessing.

A Celebration of Life for Kay will be held on Saturday February 22, 2025 at 2:30pm at New Jerusalem Worship Ministries 5196 Avenue B, Saint Augustine, FL 32095. Following the service, family and friends are invited to gather for a meal and share memories.
