Kevin, you are such a special person and I feel honored to have known you. We will all remember your kindness, humility, and compassion for others. My heart breaks for your sweet mama, your children, your brother and sister, and friends. No one expected you to be gone from this Earth so soon. I wish I could change that, but I have the peace of knowing you are in a better place and will be reunited with your loved ones one day. Rest in peace, my friend.

“ Kevin, my first born, My heart breaks for you but I cherish the memories I have. You were the first to teach me how to be a Mom, a precious gift from God! Mistakes were certainly made along the way, but the lessons continued through your life, and we both got better at it. 😊. What a beautiful and smart baby you were! And when you became a father, Dad and I were so proud of you and there to guide you...becoming a parent. Your children have known and felt your love on so many levels, and love you unconditionally in return. Your siblings, Makenzi and Johnathon will certainly cherish their memories of your love and constant sense of humor. We have so many Family memories to pull from...Holidays together, singing around the piano, cruises, snowboarding, camping, soccer trips, the list goes on. You were admired by so many as you grew into an adult and everyone that meet you immediately knew you were a genuinely good person. Our memories of you will comfort us as days pass. I love you my precious Son!❤️

“ I have so many memories of Kevin. He used to come into my office and we talked about everything from personal things to the problems of the world. He was such an intelligent, articulate, sweet person. I know Kevin is at peace now and is being looked over by John. God has another angel and I know heaven is much brighter. We will miss you Kevin, especially your children, Mother and brother, REST IN PEACE my sweet boy.

It is so hard for me to say goodbye. I have so many memories of the talks we would have in my office - from personal problems to the problems of the world. I know he is now at peace and with John. God bless and keep you my sweet friend and make believe grandson. I love you and will miss you tremendously
