

Kevin "Kiwi" Larrabee

September 11, 1970 - May 11, 2026

Kevin "Kiwi" Larrabee, 55, of St. Augustine, passed away on May 11, 2026.

Born on September 11, 1970, in Clearwater, Kevin lived a life defined by loyalty, kindness, and devotion to the people he loved most. He graduated from St. Joseph Academy in 1988 and later attended the University of North Florida. Kevin proudly served his country in the Army National Guard for 27 years.

Above all else, Kevin loved his family immensely. Married for 28 years to his high school sweetheart, Shannon, he was a devoted husband and an incredible father to Tristan, Ronan, and Caroline, who were truly the center of his world. Kevin took immense pride in his children and never missed an opportunity to celebrate their accomplishments.

Kevin had a big heart, was generous, and never met a stranger. His kindness and welcoming spirit touched countless lives.

Kevin was a passionate sports fan, especially when it came to supporting his children in their athletic pursuits. He was also a lifelong and devoted fan of Notre Dame Fighting Irish football. Football game days were a cherished tradition in the Larrabee home, often filled with Irish food, cheering for Notre Dame, and spending time together as a family.

Kevin was welcomed into heaven by his father, Charles Larrabee; his mother, Florence Larrabee; his brothers, Sean & Stephen Larrabee; and his sisters, Elizabeth Scotto & Bonnie Larrabee.

He is survived by his wife, Shannon Larrabee; his three children, Tristan Larrabee, Ronan Larrabee, and Caroline Larrabee.

He is also survived by his sisters, Linda Larrabee, Vicki Kabrich, Karen Woltemar, and Elaine Tew; as well as many nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends.

A service honoring the life of Kevin Larrabee will be held on Saturday, May 30th, at 11:00 AM at St. Johns Family Funeral Home in St. Augustine.
