Kevin was a fine young man who we treated as part of our family. I enjoyed my conversations with him and have fond memories of making coffee for Kevin when he came over. He said I made the best coffee, so of course, I had to make coffee for him each time he came over. My wife and I will only have good memories of our times with Kevin, who we thought of like a son. We are deeply saddened by his passing... God bless you Kevin. I hope you find peace in heaven. The Schupke family will surely miss you and will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.
