Kit Irwin Tappen

June 16, 1973 - June 28, 2014

Kit Irwin Tappen, 41, St. Augustine, died unexpectedly June 28, 2014 from injuries sustained in an accident. Born in Boynton Beach, FL, Kit served his country honorably in the U.S. Navy. In 2004, after completing his military service, he moved to Lake City to take over his father's company, Ability Auto. Kit relocated to St. Augustine in 2006, and was currently employed as a tow truck driver with Complete Collision. A gathering of family and friends will be held from 2-4 p.m. Saturday July 5, 2014 at St. Johns Family Funeral Home. Kit is survived by his wife, Tania Marie Tappen; sons, Timothy Wayne Tappen, Matthew Alexander Tappen, Johnathan Perry Tappen; mother, Lynne Thomas, all of St. Augustine; brother Scott Robert Thomas (Janelle); sister, Jill Elizabeth Thomas, all of West Palm Beach; nephews, Scott A. Thomas, Jordan Thomas, Steven Thomas, and Brendan Thomas, and the Baker family. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ I am a community volunteer and I was sorry to hear of the loss of Kit. Words fail to describe the feelings of pain and sorrow that is experienced when you lose someone you love in death. It is only natural to want to live forever with the ones we love. This will soon happen as promised at John 5:28, 29. According to that scripture, you have the hope of seeing Kit again. “ Tonya, Boys and extended family, I am so sorry for your loss, Kit was a good man and will be missed by so many, especially as a husband and father though. May God watch over you and help heal the pain and know that Kit is watching over you also. Cherish the memories and good thoughts as they will keep you going and keep him alive in your heart and mind.
