“ My heart hurts for this entire situation. Lyle is a very close friend of mine. My deepest condolences for Joann. I can't imagine the pain she is in having to bury a child. And wanting to offer my sympathies for being unable to attend the service. I couldn't get last minute arrangements made for Reign. So I light this candle in Remembrance of Laura for a life that was lost way to soon. And for hopes that one day there is an end to such tragedies. Again my warmest regards.

Laura was my fiance of five years. There hasn't been a day gone by since her passing that I haven't cried. I miss her so much and she was the love of my life. My condolences to the family.
