“ Our family's were friendly in the late 50's and early 60's in Oshkosh. My father was a Major and was assigned to the USMC group in town and knew Dutch, and his mom would babysit my siblings and I on occasion. We would speak of Dutch over the years, after seeing him ump a game on TV or just thinking back to Oshkosh. So sad to hear of his passing but his life will live on in all the videos of him at the plate.

“ I have many great memories of golfing with Dutch at Westhaven over several years after his retirement from baseball. He was very entertaining. There will always be a special place in my heart for memories of Dutch.
