

Linda Lane Conte

June 28, 1939 - September 7, 2020

Linda Lane Conte, 81, passed away on September 7, 2020 at Life Care Center of Jacksonville. She was born on June 28, 1939, in Dansville, New York to Calvin Bayard Knapp and Nell Lane Knapp. She spent her early childhood years there, then the family moved to Florida, settling in Bartow, where her father was editor and publisher of the Polk County Tribune. In 1944 the family welcomed her sister, Carolyn. Linda lived many places, including Ohio and near Washington D.C., moving to the St. Augustine area in the late '90s to be closer to family. With her nurses' training and her strong desire to help people, she enjoyed working as a CNA.

A gentle soul, she will be greatly missed by many... her daughter, Ramona Barbee (Steve) of Ewing, KY; son Tim Cubbage (Jennifer), of Orlando; daughter Christian Brislin (Kevin) of Jacksonville, and four grandchildren. In addition to her sister Carolyn Everitt (Don), St. Augustine, other survivors include nephews Rick Bartlett (Tracy), Longmont, CO; Jason Cooper, Tallahassee, and Diane Wells (Buford, GA). Left to cherish her memory also are cousins Nancy Lane Rash (Jim); Jim Lane (Loretta), Dunedin; Ron Lanphear (Judy), Orlando; Sondra Smith, Fort White; and a host of second cousins she was close to. A celebration of life memorial is planned for a later date. In lieu of flowers, Linda would be pleased that donations be directed to her revered Cathedral Basilica Catholic Church of St. Augustine, 38 Cathedral Place, St. Augustine, FL 32084.

“ Hi Christian - Thanks for sharing memories of your mom. I'll remember her for her clever humor. You'd get frustrated when she didn't understand what you wanted her to do. But when you weren't looking, she'd flash a knowing smile. Sorry it's at your expense, but I always enjoyed it when she did that.

“ Mama Conte, I was honored to know you and thank you for giving me the greatest gift one could ever hope to have, my forever friend, my very best friend, Christian. I love you. May the road rise to meet you, may the wind be at your back, may the sun be upon your face and may God hold you in the palm of his hand forever. - Karla
