Linda Kay Dugard

March 11, 1951 - March 19, 2012

Linda Kay Dugard, age 61, of St. Augustine, died suddenly on March 19, 2012 at Flagler Hospital. Born in Montrose, Colorado, she grew up in Cascade, Montana. Linda owned and operated three different restaurants in Montana for many years. She also dedicated her time to helping her sister raise her nieces and nephews. Linda was very artistic, which was evidenced in the fact that she loved painting and doing needle points. She also enjoyed cooking for those she loved. Linda's last residence was at St. Augustine Rehab, where she was well-loved by all who knew her. Her passion was designing and making jewelry for the nurses, the residents, and their families. She will be deeply missed by everyone, and especially by her beloved family. She was preceded in death by her brother, George Frank Cristman, and by her husband, Glenn Dugard. She is survived by her daughters, Glenda Walden, and her husband, Perry, of Jacksonville, and Jennifer Gray of South Dakota; a sister, Carrol Finkelstein, and her husband, Arnie, of St. Augustine; grandchildren, Sarah and Terry; and four step-grandchildren. A Memorial Service will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday at St. Johns Family Funeral Home, with Rev. Craig Eby officiating. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
