“ We were sorry to hear of Linda's passing, but we know her love for her family lives on in them. She was a good-hearted and fun person to be around, and her creative work with the Tribune helped to keep that old Flagler "flavor" alive with readers even as the county was changing so much. To Jimmy and all the family, we're keeping you in our prayers, that God will be with you for comfort and strength. Dale and Tracey Clegg

“ I always enjoyed conversations with Linda. When we worked together at the Tribune and when I visited my dads photo shop. She was an inspiration to be around. Her humor and advice was always cheerful, pleasant and knowledgeable. Her talents were embraced by all. Yes she will be missed by many but remembered through the love of family. Flowers will be paced in the Rio de Nosara in her memory on March 3rd. Pura Vida.
