“ To the Pelesasa Family,

My name is Ruth Te'o and I met Lino at the home of my late Uncle Lusi and the late Aunty Titilua in the village of Leloalua when his father retired from the military and returned to American Samoa. While I don't remember the year, I think Lino and his brother Gabriel were attending the Marist Brothers school at Atuu, adolescent age.

I remember Lino as cheerful with a happy face and a loud laugh. He was approachable, friendly and had an ease that made one feel welcome.

Later, Lino left the island to return with his family to the US and our paths never crossed again.

However, I recently moved to Florida and when cousins Lulu and Tina mentioned that Lino lived here, I randomly thought about him and how nice it would be to 'catch up', because it had been many years since those days at Leloalua.

Unfortunately, that was not to be and I was saddened when I learned of his passing.

I am so very sorry for the loss of your father, grandfather, brother, uncle, cousin and friend.

May God's comfort bring you Peace during this difficult time.

“ I attended Lino & Ana's wedding. It was the most beautiful wedding I have ever seen. They rented the back house of my parents the Manoiki residence. We would be up all night laughing and talking. We also considered each other family. Lino was a kind loving and generous person. RIP my brother! 💔
