Luther Edwin Hallquist

December 14, 1927 - March 11, 2012

Luther Edwin Hallquist, 84, Ft. Myers, died March 11, 2012 at his home. He was born in St. Augustine, FL and left St. Augustine and moved to Ft. Myers in the early fifties, marrying Martha Louise Hand in 1952. He was a retired commercial fisherman and worked in the shrimping industry. He fished the waters of the Atlantic Florida Gulf around to Campeche, Mexico. Luther also took great pride in building shrimp nets. Graveside services will be held 3:00 PM Thursday March 15, 2012 at Evergreen Cemetery in St. Augustine. In lieu of flowers you can make a contribution in his memory to your local Make a Wish Foundation. He is survived by Martha and their four children, Richard Dennis Hallquist and his son, Richard Edwin Hallquist, John Walter Hallquist, Marie Annette Meitz, her husband Dennis, and their two daughters, Colleen Marie and Laura Nicole, Patrick Larry Moore Hallquist and his son Tyler Shane Hallquist. He is also survived by his brother, George Hallquist and his wife, Anne; and numerous cousins, nieces, nephews, family and friends. "It's my way or the highway." St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ Sorry to hear of Luther's passing. I'll always remember him driving to the docks with a dog in his lap and joking with everyone.
