Lyman Edward McGregor

September 7, 1947 - April 4, 2012

Lyman Edward McGregor, age 64, of St. Augustine, FL, passed away peacefully on April 4, 2012, at the Bailey Family Center for Caring, surrounded by his family. Born in Hutchinson, Kansas, to parents Esther & Lawrence McGregor, Lyman grew up in Sylvia, Kansas on his family's farm. He served his country in the U.S. Air Force during the Vietnam War, then attended Sterling College, Creighton University and Wichita State University, graduating with a Bachelors of Science Degree. Lyman worked for Varian Analytical Instruments for 17 years, as both a Field Service Engineer and a Sales Representative. He then became an Agricultural Specialist with U.S. Homeland Security at the Miami Airport, followed by his serving as Patent Examiner for the U.S. Patent Office in Alexandria, Virginia. Lyman moved to St. Augustine in the early 2000's and was a member of San Sebastian Catholic Church and the Knights of Columbus. He will be sadly missed by his loving family and friends. A funeral mass will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Tuesday, April 10, at San Sebastian Catholic Church in St. Augustine, with Father John Gillespie and Father Seamus O'Flynn concelebrating. Committal services with military honors and interment will follow at San Lorenzo Cemetery. Family and friends will return to the fellowship hall at San Sebastian Catholic Church after committal services. A visitation on Monday, April 9, will take place from 6 to 7:30 p.m., accompanied by a rosary, and will be followed by a vigil service at 7:30 p.m. Flowers and remembrances may be sent to St. Johns Family Funeral Home or in lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Bailey Family Center for Caring, c/o Community Hospice of NE Florida, 4266 Sunbeam Rd., Jacksonville, FL 32257. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
