Lynda Carol Stephens

March 16, 1949 - March 16, 2013

On the 16th day of March the Lord called Lynda Carol Stephens home to live in eternal glory with Jesus Christ following a lengthy illness. She was 64-years old and was predeceased by her husband Norman Buford Stevens and her mother, Lois Bradham Lester. Lynda was born on March 16, 1949 in Florence South Carolina and settled in Huntsville, Alabama where she worked as a civil service employee for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) from 1968 until 1981. Lynda and Norman were married in 1982, and moved around the southeast following Norman's work in the security field and music career. They moved to St. Augustine, FL in 1992 and made their home on Vilano Beach. She worked for many years as a Hostess at Ripley's Believe it or Not Museum. Mrs. Stephens is survived by her brother, Leo William Lester and Toni his wife; niece Lauren Sanderson and her husband Drew Sanderson, their daughters Sadie, Sophie and Sydnie; nephew Brandon Lester, his wife Betsy Lester and son Aiden, all of Huntsville, Alabama. Lynda was loved by her family and friends and will be deeply missed. She will also be missed by her two dogs; Buttons and Tinker and her cat Pepper. At her request, Lynda's remains will be cremated. Her ashes and those of Norman will be spread together over the Ocean and there will be no public service. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
