

Madeline Louise Waytovich

February 21, 1936 - October 17, 2022

Madeline “Mamaw” Waytovich, age 86, passed away on October 17, 2022, surrounded by family, at her residence in Laurens, South Carolina. She was born on February 21, 1936 in Meadow Creek, West Virginia. Madeline married the loved of her life, Paul, in May, 1956 and moved to Ohio. Paul’s job took them to Illinois and then to Hobart, Indiana where they started their family. Together they raised their three children, Charles, Sharon and Michael, eventually relocating and settling in St. Augustine in 1987.

In her spare time, Madeline enjoyed working in the yard and tending to her flowers. She loved to cook and was famous for her biscuits and gravy, as well as her homemade fruit cakes. (And, by the way, her son-in-law, Wayne, is still waiting for his!)

Madeline was always young at heart, enjoying her theme parks and concerts. She was “the life of the party,” with a screwdriver in her hand, just in case!

She was preceded in death by her husband, Paul Waytovich, and her son, Charles Waytovich.

She is survived by her daughter, Sharon Huetcher, and her husband, Wayne; son, Michael Waytovich, and his wife, Denise; granddaughter, Kristin Jones, and her husband, Michael; great-grandchildren, Antonio, Vincente, Maximus, Alexandria Jones; grandchildren Michael Turcotte and Thomas Hagar, and his wife, Sheila; and great-grandchildren, Sebastian, Logan and Luke; and special niece Doris Ayers, as well as two nephews, Blake Gruny and Miles Ayers.

A funeral service will take place at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, October 22, 2022 at St. Johns Family Funeral Home. Interment will follow at Craig Memorial Park. A visitation, beginning at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, will precede the funeral service.

The family will also be hosting a Celebration of Life at the Captain's Quarters Condos, 1 Dondanville Road, at St. Augustine Beach.

Arrangements are in the care of St. Johns Family Funeral Home.
