Malcolm J. Cotter

October 31, 1934 - September 4, 2012

Malcolm John Richard Cotter of St. Augustine, Florida, passed away, surrounded by his adoring family on September 4th 2012. He was 77.

Malcolm is survived by his loving wife of nearly 40 years, Margaret "Maddie" Cotter, St. Augustine, his son Richard, Jacksonville, his daughter Michelle, his son-in-law, Edward and two grandsons, Harry and John, Washington, D.C. He is also survived by three sisters, Gladys Blouin, St. Augustine, Phyllis Shaughnessy, West Palm Beach, Myrtle Hall, Cork, Ireland; three brothers, Jasper (Mary) Cotter, Cecil Cotter, all of Cork, Ireland, Victor (Margaret) Cotter, South Hampton, England; and two nephews, Malcolm and Noel Cotter, of Cork, Ireland. Originally from Cork, Ireland, Malcolm spent the majority of his life in Putnam County, New York and in St. Augustine. A gifted builder, he ran a small construction firm. He also had an ardent love for golf, which was enthusiastically fostered by his friends at the St. Augustine Shores Golf Club. He was ecstatic when he fulfilled a lifelong dream of playing at the Ballybunion Golf Club in Ireland just last year. Malcolm was also an American history enthusiast and enjoyed reading. We will celebrate Malcolm's life with a Vigil Service on Monday, September 10th beginning at 5 p.m. and visitation will continue until 7 p.m. and the Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Tuesday, September 11th at 9 a.m., both of which will take place at St. Anastasia Catholic Church, 5205 A1A South, St. Augustine, Florida 32080. Malcolm will be interred at San Lorenzo cemetery, 1635 US 1 South, St. Augustine, Florida 32084 immediately following the mass. Flowers are gratefully accepted or those wishing may make a contribution in his memory to Catholic Charities or Community Hospice of NE Florida. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
