

Margaret Ada Almond

October 4, 1937 - January 8, 2019

Margaret Almond, 81, of Fredericksburg, Virginia, passed away on January 8, 2019, at her daughter's home. She was born in Goldvein, Virginia, to Golder and Violet Randall, and was one of eleven children. Margaret was fondly known by her brothers and sisters as "Sis".

Margaret was the owner of Courthouse Grocery in Stafford, Virginia, and enjoyed the many customers who became a part of her daily life. She was a gifted seamstress and loved to draw and paint. The greatest joy of her life was spending time with her family. She was a member of Massaponax Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Walter J. Almond, and her daughter, Deborah Tulloch. Margaret is survived by her daughter, Donna Folmar (Michael); grandchildren Toni Adair (Donald), Tanya Griffin, Clifton Jackson, Robin Reudi (Brandon), Christopher Tulloch (Crystal), Ashton Saunders (Brandon); sisters Shirley McFeters and Mary Jane Wight (Gerald); brother Buddy Noel (Sandi); twelve great grandchildren; numerous nieces and nephews; and other loving extended family.

A memorial service in Margaret's honor will be held at 2:00 p.m. on January 26, 2019, at Massaponax Baptist Church, 5101 Massaponax Church Road, Fredericksburg, Virginia 22407. A reception will follow at the church.

In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting donations be made to the American Heart Association.

St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
