Margaret Stubbington Lowell

June 2, 1929 - May 7, 2016

Margaret Stubbington Lowell, age 86, of St. Augustine, passed away peacefully on May 7, 2016 at the Bailey Family Center for Caring with her family by her side. She was born and grew up in Portsmouth, England. She attended Art School and became an accomplished Window Dresser at John Lewis Department Store on Oxford Street in London. She worked for a transatlantic cruise line aboard the RMS Saxonica in England and later moved to the New York City in the early 1960's to work as a Nanny. She met her husband-to-be, John Francis Lowell in Long Island, New York. The couple returned to England to be married on October 9, 1965. They started their married life in Long Island and lived in for many years in North Carolina, Sun City Center and had recently moved to St. Augustine. She was a member of the British Connection Club in Sun City Center. More than anything, Margaret was a devoted wife and homemaker, and a loving mother. She is survived by her husband of 50 years, John "Jack" Lowell of St. Augustine; a son, Andrew Lowell (Susan Bailie) of St. Augustine; and sisters, Chrissie Egbear, Gweneth Stubbington, and Freda Ware, all of England, a grandson, Alex Walston, and two step grandchildren. Lindsay and Alex Iglesias. Private services will be held. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
