

Margaret Williams

March 26, 1944 - April 13, 2021

Margaret Williams, age 77, of St. Augustine, passed away on April 13, 2021 at Baptist South Center for Caring. Born “Magdalena” to Jozsef and Agnes Harangozo in Hungary, she immigrated with her family to the U.S. at the age of 13. She took the name of Margaret and grew up in the Bay area of California. For many years she worked in Silicon Valley as a quality control inspector for a semiconductor manufacturer and was a homemaker and mother. In 2003, she retired and moved to St. Augustine, Florida. She was a very active member of San Juan del Rio Catholic Church where she taught Religious Education and was a member of the choir and the ladies auxiliary. She was a talented gardener and was a member of the Garden Club of St. Augustine, and gladly volunteered her time beautifying the downtown area. She was a loving mother, grandmother, sister and friend to many. She will be deeply missed.

She was preceded in death by a brother, Emery Harangozo. She is survived by her son, Edward “Ed” Williams and his wife Marialea “Leah” of Jacksonville; a sister, Trudy Harangozo of Port St. Lucie; a brother, Louis Harangozo and his wife Evelyn of Alameda, California, and granddaughter, Maile Williams; and a niece, Analisa Harangozo.

A funeral mass will be held at 10 am on Saturday, May 1, 2021 at San Juan Del Rio Catholic Church. Interment will follow at Craig Memorial Park. A visitation will be held from 7 to 9 pm on Friday, April 30, 2021 at St. Johns Family Funeral Home.

St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
