

Marguerite Mae Campbell

February 18, 1918 - March 5, 2013

Marguerite Mae Campbell

February 18, 1918 - March 5, 2013

(No Obituary Text Available)

Tribute Wall

PY

“ It was a blessing to find the place where Aunt Marg,s memorial service was held. I wasn't in touch with anyone who knew her death date. I remember her so well. A fun loving, humor loving, lady who spread her warm love to this shy child when I was young, and to friends and neighbors back in Escanaba where she and her husband lived for many years.

I remember the last time I saw her. My husband and I were staying in Florida and drove up to visit. She iinsisted that we stay for supper and to spend the night. In spite of being blind, Aunt Marg cooked supper and was as gracious a hostess as ever. We had a grand time visiting and talking about old times. I still miss her.

Peggy Yusko - December 05, 2018 at 10:36 AM