

Marie Doyle Vroegop

February 18, 1932 - October 6, 2018

Marie Doyle Vroegop, age 86, of Palm Coast, Florida passed away on October 6, 2018 at Stuart F. Meyer Hospice. She was born in Charleston, SC and grew up in Salisbury Beach, Mass. where she graduated from Amesbury High School. After graduation she attended University of New Hampshire, where she studied marketing. Marie moved to Miami to continue her studies in marketing and raise her son Michael. This is where she met her husband of 37 years, Tom and moved to Readington Beach, FL and finally Palm Coast in 1989. She was a horse racing enthusiast, anyone who knew her knew she loved the horse racing but more than anything she was a fun and loving wife and mother. Marie will rest in St Anastasia Catholic Church columbarium. She is survived by her husband, Thomas D. Vroegop of Palm Coast; son, Michael Mirage (Ann) of Ponce Inlet; brother in-laws, Patrick King (Laura) of Greenville, NC and Steve Ives (Dawn) of Troutman, NC. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
