Marion Olick

March 5, 1960 - February 5, 2017

Marion Olick, age 56, of Satsuma, Florida, passed away unexpectedly on February 5, 2017 at her home. Born in Berlin, Germany, Marion moved with her family to the United States at the age of 5, initially residing in Wisconsin.

She grew up in Bolivar, New York and had been a resident of Satsuma, FL. since 2012, moving there from Olean, New York. Marion attended Jamestown Community College and graduated with a degree in business and computer programming. She worked for many years in the Metals Industry, in both New York and Florida, most recently working as a Quality Control Manager for Sapa North America, Aluminum Extrusion Division in St. Augustine.

Throughout the years her most important work and passion in life was that of a loving mother raising a family of four sons. She will be deeply missed. She was preceded in death by her father, Wolfgang Barth and mother, Waltraud Barth and a son Scott. She is survived by sons, Erik Hagan of Olean, NY, Anthony Olick of Pittsburgh, PA, Coty Olick, and his wife Katie-Anne, of Ithaca, NY, and Nicholas Stives of Pittsburgh, PA.; longtime companion, Paul Tyler of Satsuma; brother, Detlef "Ted" Barth; and grandchildren, Jocelyn Hagan and August Olick. Private services will be held. St. Johns Family Funeral Home in St. Augustine is in charge of arrangements.
