

Marjore Allyn Siegel

November 11, 1923 - June 6, 2020

Marjorie Allyn Siegel, 96, of Satsuma passed away peacefully at her residence surrounded by her immediate family on Saturday, June 6, 2020. She was born on November 11, 1923 in Galena, Missouri where she was raised by her mother and grandparents. Later in life, she relocated to Chicago where she met her husband, Sheldon Siegel. They purchased a sailboat and cruised all around the world. Marjorie worked for Shell Oil in the Bahamas for many years before retiring. She loved animals especially her dog and her cockatoos. She loved the water, cruising and lived life to the fullest.

Marjorie is preceded in death by her husband, Sheldon; parents, Efton and Etta Flood; brother, Sidney Flood; Dog, Lucky.

Marjorie is survived by her son, David Siegel and daughter in law, Anette of Ft. Lauderdale; grandchildren, Jonathan, Michelle and Alexander; her cockatoos, Dolly, Dennis and Digby. She will be greatly missed and was dearly loved by all.

In lieu of flowers, Marjorie's family requests that donations be sent to an animal rescue or bird sanctuary of your choice.

St Johns Family Funeral Home & Crematory is in charge of services.

“ Got to love the ability of the internet to investigate things. What this doesn't mention was that she had a prior marriage to a man named William John O'Keefe and a daughter named Kathleen O'Keefe who is currently in Chicago. Kathleen grew up with marjorie's mother Etta in Springfield Missouri.
