

Marjorie Harris

July 20, 1948 - April 3, 2025

Ms. Marjorie Ann Harris, left this world on April 3rd 2025.

She was born in Newberg New York, where she grew up and met her first husband. After separating from her first husband, she started anew with her parents, moving to Fort Pierce Florida, where she met the love of her life Bobby Harris. The two of them spent many happy years together, and starting a lovely family of their own.

Marjorie was such a kind soul, she loved to dance, and adored music. She loved her children and grandchildren; Instilling in them such a true passion for the great outdoors. She was a nature Savant, and a master gardener. You could point to any kind of tree, flower, plant, shrub, mushroom, or moss and she would be able to tell you what it was before you could blink. Horticulture was such a passion of hers, she attained a masters degree in the study of plants. A fond memory her family shares, is her adventures into nature Marjorie would find some moss or driftwood and lichens, and construct her own unique pieces of art, that truly showed her free spirit.

She was lively to the end, even doing cartwheels and being raucous in the yard at times one would think one her age would stay in bed, she was out galavanting in the yard with her grandchildren and great grandchildren. Her daily routine would be to take her morning coffee, and spend as much time as she could, enjoying nature and being at peace with the great outdoors.

Marjorie is preceded in death by her mother, Margret and father, Frank; her daughter Samantha; and her beloved husband Bobby.

She is survived by her son, Brent Baker of San Mateo Fl; daughter Celene Fox, of Satsuma Fl;

Her Grandchildren, Candace Baker, Corey, Lauren, Robbie, Tyler, and Henry Jr of San Mateo Fl;

Her Great Grandchildren, Chad Jr, Cayden, Justin Jr, Anthony, Cameron, Calynn, Samantha, Chloe, Cadence, Lillian, Lilliana, Zariya & Ivy of Florida.

And Marjorie is survived by a myriad of adoring friends, who will forever cherish her memory.

Though we mourn the loss of a marvellous woman, we adore the life she had, and honor her through ways she would have wanted. So in her memory, we ask that you go outside, soak in some sunshine, and learn about a new flower; it's what she would have loved!

A celebration of life will be held for Ms. Marjorie Harris at The Women's Club of San Mateo on April 27th at 12 pm
