July 25, 1953 - October 18, 2021

Marlin Kenneth Trovinger Jr, "Ken," peacefully passed away in his St. Augustine, Florida home in the early morning hours of October 18th, 2021. Marlin was also a lover of animals and had several dogs throughout his life, including Panda, Dijon and Nick and even took care of the squirrels, chipmunks and birds that surrounded his home by leaving nuts and seeds for them. Marlin also enjoyed gardening and summers were often filled with the delicious tomatoes and peppers he grew. He was also famous for the beautiful way he decorated his home at Christmas and even won "Best Decorated House" in 2001. Marlin was a devoted husband, father and grandfather who enjoyed being surrounded by good food, family and friends. Marlin is survived by his wife of 42 years, Carolyn, his younger brother Paul, and his children, Sara (35yrs) and Ross (33yrs), and grandchildren, Gavin (2yrs) and Liliana (1yr). “ Carol, my deepest sympathy to you and your family. I loved Ken. We also were cousins. He was so kind and funny. When we were all younger we had a great time with family. We had lost touch over the years, but I never forgot him. May you find peace and comfort during these difficult days with the love that surrounds you.

“ *Ken was truly a unique person with many gifts. With his gift of laughter, you enjoyed being in his company. With his gift of consideration, you could always expect a package in the mail. With his gift of loyalty, you knew he was going to call you during the Raven's games, and be your friend forever. Thank you for always being there for us, forever friend. We will truly miss you!
