“ I miss you so much Titi. I never thought this would happen or that you would leave this early. I'm beyond happy you found peace and went with the Lord. My life will never be the same without you. I would do anything to hear your laugh at me making funny faces through FaceTime. I love you so much Titi

“ Dear Robert and Nicholas, We are so sorry for the loss of Martha. We will always remember her for all the crafts she did especially the beautiful cards she made. All the people that received them thought they were beautiful. We will keep you and all your family in our prayers. Our deepest sympathy Tom and Leslie

“ Dearest Martha and family - blessed heartfelt prayers to you. Martha holds a special place in our hearts. She was a joyful bubble of light and I see it in her son, Nicholas. God has chosen an angel to look over us forever. Remembering our school days and welcoming friendship. I feel your presence around more than ever. You are sorely missed and always in our hearts. Be at peace, my dearest friend.
