

Martin C Lee Jr

April 17, 1937 - December 4, 2018

Martin C. Lee, Jr., age 81, of St. Augustine passed away at the Bailey Family Center for Caring. He was born and raised in Boston, Mass to the late Martin and Margaret Lee. Martin took classes at the University of New Hampshire, and then he went to work in the home remodeling business until 1975. After retiring from home remodeling he went on to breed grey hounds full time. In 1995 he retired from dog breeding and became a full time world traveler. He spent most of his time travelling all over South America, and called St. Augustine home, where he made many lifelong friends. Martin also enjoyed golfing but more than anything he loved his family. He was a loving father, grandfather, brother and friend, and will be deeply missed.

He is survived by his daughters, Brenda Gebhard, MaryAnne Laureano, Susan Schepici and Elizabeth Lee; brother, John Lee, 5 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren.

St Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

I love you grandpa. I wish I could've spent more time with you while you were here. You have inspired me to do everything that excites me and scares me. I hope to travel to Columbia because you saw great beauty there. I will forever miss you but I know that you lived a great life full of adventure and wonderful memories. Thank you for everything that you did that has contributed to my life and my future. -Mädchen Gebhard

Without a doubt, the best person I have met in this way of life. Great friend of the soul that will always live in our hearts. I will always remember you and I will have all your teachings in my life. respect, joy, love for life. Thank you very much for being such a special friend and leaving part of my life full of beautiful moments. A hug to your whole family!
