“ Never understood the dreaded mother-in-law jokes. Because my mother-in-law was awesome! We always had a blast when we were together. (In trouble with Eddie most of the time). She loved life and everyone in her life. Her life wasn't easy, but made the best of it. Godspeed! Love ya, Michele

“ *My deepest sympathy to the family and friends. May the God of all comfort be with you during this time of grief. God (Jehovah) promises to be with those broken at heart and crushed in spirit. As you reflect on the happy moments you spent together may it bring you comfort. The bible promises that very soon death will be done away with forever and you will enjoy the blessing of living with out the sting of death for ever on a paradise earth without sickness or death. Revelation 21 :.3*4*

“ Mom I love you and miss you already. I use to think it would be harder on everyone who live there with you in St. Augustine if you passed away. But since I have called you almost every day for the last 13 years to make sure we talk it may hit me harder. I was almost home yesterday coming from up there and started to grab my phone to let you know I made it alright, something you had me do all the time. I am going to miss our calls. Love you always
