“ When I was a little girl Maurice and Jackie lived down the road from us. Jackie was my Daddy's first cousin. Maurice would come down and play hop-scotch with us. We had to teach him how to do it and I remember his feet were so big we had to make our blocks big so his foot would fit in it. He was always good to us and we always loved to see him coming down the road. Looks like he had a good long life. Good memories. Cindy Solano Carter
