“ Missy was such a sweet and loving friend. She would sacrifice things for herself in order to help others. She never put herself first. She was always kind to others. Everyone knew her at camp and she knew everyone's name. I couldn't have asked for a better friend or neighbor. Life isn't going to be the same without her. Love you Missy! Until we meet again in heaven!

“ What I remember about Missy, was her caring sweet and quiet spirit. She cared for Gramma and Grampa & always had some funnies to tell!

- At family get togethers, she was always such a help with the littles, I know she was with mine. Few years back we were visiting the family & my grandson got hurt and she was the best little nurse to him, was quick to act & knew exactly what to do. She will be forever in our hearts and missed by so many. Until we all meet again 🕊️

“ Missy was such a joy to have around as a little girl and I loved to keep her when Vickie would allow it. One of my fondness memories was of her helping me make apple cake which she loved to eat. She was such a sweet and loving lady and a great mom. You have our thoughts, our hearts and our love. Memories of her love and friendship are treasures we will have always. May God’s love make your grief bearable. Love Carolyn & Kevin
