“ We can all fully agree Mike was a great guy!! I met Mike and Ellen at a pivotal point in my life, I truly knew Mike was a friend, a good person who cared about people. He was kind and funny and loved to bust chops as us Jersey people say! When he worked as a parts delivery guy, his route went by my office building, everyday I'd get a funny text from Mike to that made me laugh. He will be missed by so many whose lives he touched with good nature, laughter and whatever nickname he bestowed upon you, Bradley.

“ We didn’t know Mike very long but for the time we did know him he had a huge impact. Mike was hilarious and had many jokes right off the rip. He would always have a smile on his face. He was very caring and loved animals. He loved watching all of our 11 cats pounce and play, especially the orange one. He would even bring them all treats! He was always thinking of ways to help whether it was by offering us a place to go if we needed to evacuate for the hurricane, or giving me advice about body work on my car, or talking to Steven about various projects. Our conversations were always full of laughs and new knowledge. We learned a lot from our new friend and it’s sad that we won’t be seeing him on his lunch break... or at the most random times! lol he was always passing through our alley to say “just wanted to see what you kids were up to” in his thick Jersey accent. We will miss you and your jokes Mike! Ellen aka Mikes “Bride” as he would refer to you as, we are saddened for your loss and ask that you please don’t hesitate to reach out to us if you need ANYTHING at all! All of our love to Mikes family and friends,
Sam and Steven

“ Things you may or may not have known about Mike.

1. Racing ... Mike loved all kinds of racing. Within the last 12 months he and I went twice both times had to wear goggles , had to sit on the turn where clay and dirt mixed balls would hit you on every turn.

2. Drive Fast. He was a good driver but if it were a Lamborghini or a Ford Pinto he will take it to the limit.

3. Perfectionist.... If he started repairing something he insisted on it being perfect.

4. Playing Cards... he could and would play cards anywhere and every where. He told me a friend of his would play high card draw while he drove. I drew the line there but Mike loved cards.

5. Gray Goose Vodka. Not much into Beer . So when you went out with him and said you would buy the first round. A Budweiser and a shot always cost over $20.

6. Yes the Philadelphia Eagles . Not just love but part of him. As kids the Eagles sucked. My heart is happy with Mike being able to see them win a Championship.

7. Cool NFL uniforms or Helmets for example he liked the Bengals in their white and Blake helmets and in white pants. Don't you know that Sunday the Eagles played the Bengals. And the Eagles won. Just the way Mike would have liked it.

8. I can tell this know. Mike could remove any stripped screw or bolt . He used a valve compound. I always had him take care of stuff I screwed up. He never failed. Oh the valve compound was used when people rebuilt cylinder heads. I just didn't want Mikes trick to die with him as long as it lives he does.

9 I know nothing about body work but he told me when he learned with a yard stick he became a good body man. Now I think he ran it along the metal and made sure to use the least amount of bondo.

You body guys can rip what I typed apart but I know it was something to that effect.

10. He was a good speller.

11. He enjoyed old stories

12 he liked to break balls and laugh

13. He was good at ping pong. I must have played him 100 times and never ever won . Never even when I was close I still felt like he would win. And he would.

These are things you may or may not have known

14. When we would go to the beach he could stay in the water for hours.

15. Oh he loves to use his 4 wheel drive on the beach

16. He liked to buy the $20 Lottery scratcher . The gold card I forget the name but Mike told me that the big winners are still out there. I have been with him when he would buy one and win $100 . He then would buy 5 more with the winning money. There have been times where we were stuck in front of a Circle K for hours. Mike loved to gamble.

17 Mike would come over my place in the morning and knock on my bedroom window. One night we got in at 2 am so knowing Mike I put a note on my window to leave me sleep until noon. Mike got mad at my note.

18. Mike got frustrated with me a lot . I won't say mad

19. Mike and I rode our Scooters all over St Augustine

20. Many places I went was with Mike only and vice a versa. People asked me where's your buddy when they saw me alone. Today I would rather not answer them.

21. Mike was smart.

22. In high school he and I started hanging out and I had another brother. I knew his family and he knew mine

23. God saw fit that we spent the last 3 years of his life together .

24. When I first went to St Augustine he and Ellen put me up at their home.

25 Mike loved his family. Very much. He also missed the loved ones in his family that passed before him. Mike still has his dads work shirt from the early 1970's

26. Mike lost so much weight that maybe 4 months ago he put on his Dads work shirt and it fit

27. Mike had no fear. He has a crawl space under his house and I said no way am I going down there. So he did!

28. He liked things neat and tidy

29 He depended on Ellen so much. And he knew he had the best wife anyone could ask for. He told me so

Ok I will stop I can go all night. I am going to miss so many things. Some just to stupid to mention. For example every new apartment and it was 3 in 3 years I always set it up so I had a place for Mike to sit when he came over. Stuff just I will miss. I miss him leaving me messages that I never answer my phone . So many things my eyes are wet just typing this. In closing my life was better with Mike Melitski being a part of it. I loved him as a brother for most of my life. I will miss him and nothing will change that. My heart tells me he is doing fine . Yes I mean that . Mike is doing ok, Mike always does ok. RIP my brother.
