

Mitchell Miller

October 1, 1952 - June 26, 2025

Mitchell Miller passed away suddenly on June 26, 2025, while hiking on vacation in Greece with his beloved wife, Kathy. Born on October 1, 1952, in Brooklyn, New York, Mitch was the son of the late Leo and Lee Miller. In the late 1970s, he moved to South Florida in search of a warmer climate and new opportunities.

Having spent the early part of his career as a corporate executive and senior manager, in his mid-50s, Mitch reinvented himself by completing his doctoral degree in business administration. He became an educator, author, and practicing Certified Financial Planner. Teaching became his calling—he was a devoted college instructor who inspired students with his passion for education, insight, and integrity.

Mitch built his life around a strong work ethic and a commitment to personal growth. He had a deep love for exercise, long-range target shooting with close friends, and most especially, spending time with his granddaughter, Faith. Their special bond—what he fondly called "Faith timing"—was a source of great happiness. Mitch also adored his loyal dog, Nacho, who was never far from his side.

He is survived by his loving wife, Kathy Lynn Miller; his daughter, Erica Ennis, and son-in-law, Jamey; his treasured granddaughter, Faith Lee; his stepdaughters, Jaimee, Ashley, and Jillian, and their families; seven grandchildren; and his brothers, Samuel and Martin Miller, and their families.

A Celebration of Life will take place from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, August 16, 2025, at Canopy Club at Del Webb Nocatee, 451 Grand Wood Dr., Ponte Vedra Beach.
