Mollie Mae Rosebure

July 4, 1909 - May 3, 2013

Mollie Mae Rosebure, age 103, of East Palatka, passed away peacefully on May 3, 2013 at Flagler Hospital. She was born as Mollie Mae Shaw to Luvenia and Huey Shaw on July 4, 1909, in White Springs Florida. She grew up with an enjoyable family life along with her four older siblings all which preceded her in death. Later in life Mollie married Willie Rosebure a resident of Newark, New Jersey. Mollie became a mother figure to many of her nieces and nephews and even to her longtime friend Sally "Tommie Lee" Fulton. The life changing experience of her life was when she learned about her Grand Creator Jehovah and his son Jesus Christ and their purpose for mankind. As a result Mollie began a bible study with Jehovah's Witnesses and then later dedicated her life to Jehovah and was baptized. She faithfully served Jehovah until her death. Mollie enjoyed fishing, but most of all she loved planting, and watching, things grow. She had beautiful orange groves, grapevines, sugar canes, pink and white grape fruit, pecans, persimmons, peas, and greens just to name a few. Mollie is survived by her nephews, Thomas Mitchell (Elvera) of Federal Point, Florida, LC Shaw (Louise) of Colorado Springs, Co., Herman Long (Edith) of Daytona Beach, Florida, also five generations of nieces and nephews and a special companion caregiver and friend Sally Fulton who was very faithfully by her side until her death. A memorial service will be held at 1:00 pm on Saturday, May 11, at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 201 Misson Road, Palatka, FL. 32177 St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
