“ In my flying career I had the great pleasure of being based in CLE and flying with some of the best. I worked with Nick on an especially tough trip. As Nick was walking off the aircraft he looked at me and told me I did a great job. One of my best memories. Rest In Peace, Nick.

“ I'd like to send my deepest sympathy and condolences to the Streza family.
Nick and I flew many trips together as United Flight Attendants and shared many good times. I remember I had a small party at my house for an Ohio State football game and Nick came dressed as Woody Hayes. What a hoot! We had a great time. Last time I saw Nick was at Heck's restaurant in Avon Ohio and as luck would have it Doug Dieken (former Cleveland Browns football player) was there too. Nick being an avid Browns fan, we had a great conversation with Doug about football. Rest In Peace Nick, you'll be missed.
