“ After hearing about the death of Mrs. Nassauer, my heart felt compelled to reach out to the family during this most difficult time. Death is such a traumatic experience, and that is why our loving "God of all comfort" promises to take away not only death, but to resurrect those who have already passed. (Isaiah 25:8)

“ Pam, your welcoming and giving spirit always blessed our family. Many memories of visits in Fayetteville around the pool, laughing at Iggys house at many family dinners and holidays. What a great big sister you have been. Christ welcomes you with "Well done, my faithful servant." Amen Our love, Channing, Susan & Charles Kirkman

“ Pam, my big cousin, I will always remember you from your days at Plattsburgh State to my visit to St Augustine after I retired and the trips to Atlanta. I know the lord will want you in his kingdom... if not, I've got a spare bedroom for you! I love you and will miss you...
Rest in Peace, Terry

“ Aunt Pam, you will be forever in my heart. I will cherish the wonderful memories of my childhood and early adulthood, where you always were so very good to me. I always looked up to you in your success, your loving relationship with Casey, and your tremendous kindness to us all. Your door was always open...whether it was in Bagota NJ, where you would allow Casey and I to go to the ice cream shop by ourselves...In your Georgia homes, we were always swimming and having long talks at your kitchen table...or in Florida, where you were able to meet my 3 kids; you adored all of the little ones. You will be missed, but don't worry, you left your mark on our hearts. We will speak of you often and keep your love forever eternal. Rest in peace. Kiss my Angels for me. Always, Katie
