“ Pat taught me how to made bead earrings for the Trinity Thrift Shop when I joined those volunteers many years ago. She gifted many ladies with the earrings as well as making them to sell in the shop. I loved working with Pat, what a great smile and sense of humor.

“ My fondest memories of Pat were sharing bottles of wine with her at our dinners while on the Disney Cruises. I loved when the waiter would come to take the empty bottle away she would grab it back and lift it up to make sure we drank every last drop first. You could also always count on Pat ("Fun Pat" as we affectionately called her) to show up to dinner wearing a little extra flare with a feather boa around her neck. I also loved her Maine accent and even after 30+ years of living in Florida, she never lost that. I miss you Fun Pat!

Before her illness, Pat was an active member of the St. Catherine's Guild at Trinity Episcopal Church. She worked tirelessly in the Thrift shop being in charge of all donate books. We had many fun times working together and she always kept us laughing. After she become ill she never forgot her friends and was loyal over the years even though it was difficult for her to be active. Thank you Pat for your wonderful friendship, phone conversations and generous Christmas gifts over many years. You will be missed. Nancy Sublett
